Bio: Greg made the transition to the film business from professional racing in 1991. Having been one of the top racing drivers in the United States through the 1990's, his experience behind the wheel was quickly rewarded. Seventeen years later, Greg is at the forefront of the stunt driving community. With hundreds of commercials and the top stunt driving films of the last decade under his belt, he is ready to help you turn your project into a success.
